Problem solving techniques for organisational and personal development
Giedre Tamoliune

http://www.telresources.org/resource59

LEVEL	tertiary
MODALITY	classroom-based,blended,online
TECHNOLOGY	internet resource,video,text-based
KEYWORDS	problem solving,personal development,organisational development,problem solving technique

This lesson is a part of the study course "Change management strategies". This lesson aims to introduce students to the concept of problem solving considering different contexts, modern problem solving techniques and strategies. They will analyse how these strategies could be applied in different contexts and situations and how important it is for personal and organisational development.

CONTACT	giedre.tamoliune@gmail.com